In groups of 3-4, reflect on the positive relationships envisioned in Te Tiriti o Waitangi:

How would Aotearoa be different today if Te Tiriti had been honoured since it was signed?

Sample answers:

More respect for culture and history

Healthier environment, sustainable land use More Māori representation in / trade and business

Equitable outcomes for Māori in justice, health & education

Wider understanding of Māori knowledge and culture How would Aotearoa be different today if Te Tiriti had been consistently honoured?

More community focussed

Māori would make up a greater proportion of the population

Stronger sense of national identity and belonging

No need for Waitangi Tribunal

We'd all be fluent in te reo Māori
